Community Hall

Depoe Bay's Community Hall was originally built in the 1920s and started out as some poles with a top. Its primary use at the time was for building boat. Walls were put on the structure in the 1930s, when it began its life as a community hall. Then-owner Sunset Development Company gave the building to the Chamber of Commerce, who in turn gave it to the City when Depoe Bay incorporated in 1973.

The building, at 220 SE Bay Street, has views of Depoe Bay Creek, the harbor, and the bridge. It has a recently remodeled state-of-the-art kitchen and beautiful polished hardwood floors.

The Community Hall is available for rent to Depoe Bay residents for $86.25 per day and to non-residents for $172.50 per day. A $115 deposit is required for all rentals.
